ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Veronica Djanghara

Birth date: 19/09/1961
Birth place: Kalumburu
Language: Wunumbal

Veronica was born in Kalumburu, when the nuns were also the nurses, and is one of fourteen children. Veronica's Dreaming is the Echidna that shouts out at night.

Veronica's father was a stockman droving from place to place from Kalumburu to Landsdowne. He came to Kalumburu and met Veronica's mother at 16, and they got married there. He was also a skilled dancer at corroboree. His brother Waigan Djanghara was a famous painter whose work has been included in national gallery collections. Veronica began to paint in her 40s, inspired by Kalumburu artist and sister Sylvia Djanghara.
